

do. The interior has walls of sand painted on them and the ceiling is decorated with a night sky scene.

Looking closely at the walls you can find pieces of Phil's sculptures attached and skulls instead of stones in places.

The first person you meet walking through the doors is Ian Satchell, the Shop Manager and resident Body Piercer. Ian's approach to piercing is the same as Phil's to tattooing with faultless hygiene standards providing Ian uses the best quality materials and has a caring manner with his clients. Ian has put a lot of time into researching body piercing and the result is best expertise in the art.

If you're thinking of getting some work from Phil, be warned, he's constantly booked up by at least two weeks. So avoid disappointment by ringing Ian on (06) 348 7080 and making a booking first. Phil and Ian can be found at 203 Victoria Avenue, Wanaka.

